Mental Health Resources for Teens and Young Adults

Humana
Healthy Horizons®
in Oklahoma

Sometimes you might feel really down. Things aren't going right. You feel like you can't cope. Maybe your friends or the people you love most don't understand what you're going through. Or maybe nobody has the time to listen. Don't suffer in silence, and don't give in to despair. You're not alone. Hope and help are a phone call or a text away. If you have harmed yourself or are thinking about harming yourself, please call 988 right away.

You can access any of the following resources to get the support, counseling and help you need:

Crisis support and suicide prevention

- National Suicide Prevention Lifeline
Call, text or chat 988 or call 800-273-TALK (8255). Free, confidential help for anyone at risk of self-harm, substance use, or suffering emotional distress.

Support for domestic violence
