How to report abuse, neglect and exploitation

Abuse, neglect and exploitation must be reported in accordance with state law. Any person suspecting child abuse or neglect must immediately report to the Oklahoma Department of Human Services (OKDHS) hotline at 800-522-3511

Suspected abuse, neglect or exploitation of a vulnerable adult must be immediately reported to the local Department of Human Services county office, municipal or county law enforcement authorities, or, if the report occurs after normal business hours, the OKDHS hotline. Healthcare professionals who report incidents of domestic abuse by adult victims with legal capacity must promptly make a report to the nearest law enforcement agency.
